

Teacher Evaluation

Read each of the statements below and tick the column that best describes what you think.

	Not at all	A little	A lot	Quite a lot
PREP is a fun way for students to learn at school.
PREP is a worthwhile school activity.
Student ownership of their learning is more noticeable in PREP than in other areas of learning.
The PREP programme integrates curricula and the key competencies.
Students discuss their ideas with me more in PREP than in the regular classroom programme.
PREP helps students develop their writing skills.
PREP helps students apply their writing in contexts that are real to them.
PREP helps students understand and apply the mathematics learned in regular class lessons.
PREP helps students to improve their oral communication.
PREP helps students to improve their listening skills.
PREP helps students with their reading.
PREP has encouraged my students to take greater responsibility for their own learning.
PREP has enabled me to develop and use new teaching approaches.
PREP has given me more knowledge and understanding of the organisation of our society.				