

You broke the neighbour's window playing ball. Mum says you need to pay $10 towards repairs.
(Miscellaneous)

You did not make your bed.
Place this card in front of you.
Miss your next turn to roll the dice: discard this card instead of rolling.

You spill paint on your bedroom floor and the clean up costs are $5. Mum says you pay.
(Miscellaneous)

You missed your ride to school and had to catch the bus. The fare cost you $3.
(Miscellaneous)

You forgot to feed the cat.
Place this card in front of you.
Miss your next turn to roll the dice: discard this card instead of rolling.

You kick a ball into your elderly neighbours' plum tree and pay $5 to replace the spoilt fruit.
(Food)

You did not clean your room.
Place this card in front of you.
Miss your next turn to roll the dice: discard this card instead of rolling.

You forgot to take lunch to school and spent $3 at the sausage sizzle.
(Food)

You break the cat's food bowl by skateboarding in the kitchen! You pay $6 to buy a new one.
(Food)

You lose your new Vans at the skateboard bowl. You pay $10 towards replacement.
(Clothing)

You damage your brother's guitar and pay $5 towards new strings.
(Entertainment)

You didn't do the dishes.
Place this card in front of you.
Miss your next turn to roll the dice: discard this card instead of rolling.

You didn't walk the dog. Place this card in front of you. Miss your next turn to roll the dice: discard this card instead of rolling.	You damage your Dad's favourite CD. You pay $8 towards a replacement. (Entertainment)	You spill fizzy drink on your library book. Pay $5 towards a replacement book. (Books)
You write on the inside cover of your school maths text book. The Principal charges you $10 for a replacement. (Books)	You leave your new hoodie at the netball courts. You pay $5 towards the cost of a new one. (Clothing)	Your library books are overdue. Pay $3 in fines. (Books)
You want to join the tennis club. Mum says she has already paid enough sports fees. You pay the $8 fee yourself. (Sports)	You leave your badminton racket at the sports arena. You contribute $10 towards a replacement. (Sports)	You break the charger cable for your cell phone. Mum says you have to pay $5 towards a new one. (Miscellaneous)
You see a new top you want at the mall. Mum says you have to pay $10 of the cost yourself. (Clothing)	You are sick all week and miss your paper round. You lose your $8 wages. (Wages)	You lose the Skywatch magazine and Dad makes you pay $2 towards a new one. (Entertainment)

Preview