

Student Review /Statements

STUDENTS REVIEW STATEMENT ONE

Due May

Section A to Section E – all sections must be completed
Students may use additional pages or line if required

Section A: Company Vision/Mission Statement

1. State and explain your YES Company's vision and/or mission statement.

2. What contributions can you make to help the company achieve the vision and/or mission statement?

3. Identify what you want to achieve by being a member of your YES Company?

Section B: Your Role – Personal tasks

4. Identify and then describe at least two tasks you have done so far in your Young Enterprise Company this year.

5. Illustrate how the tasks you undertook contributed to your directorship role and the operation of your YES Company.

6. Explain at least two challenges you faced in carrying out your role and how they arose.

Challenge	Explanation

7. If you had the opportunity again, what would you do differently?
Justify your answer.

8. If you had the opportunity again, what would you do in the same way?
Justify your answer.

9. Outline how you filed your personal copies of the required sections of the Section A of the Evidence Statement.

Section C: Planning

10. Specify
 (a) at least three tasks that you need to do next in your directorship role and
 (b) at least two tasks not specifically related to your directorship role.

State when these tasks need to be completed by.

ACTION POINTS (KPIs)	BY WHEN?
1. Directorship Tasks
2.
3.

4. Other tasks
5.

Section D: Peer Review

11. Nominate two other YES team members you have worked with and outline the extent to which you were able to rely on them.

Team members	Extent on which you could rely on them (give an example)

Section E: Enterprising Attributes

12. Give five separate examples of how have you demonstrated enterprise attributes within your YES company experience. You must state the attribute AND give an example of how this attribute was demonstrated. (Select five of the following enterprise attributes.)

Thinking	Managing self	Relating to others	Participating and contributing generate and use creative ideas and processes	maintain a focus on results with a 'can do' attitude	carry through an agreed responsibility	co-operate effectively with others
identify, assess and manage calculated risks	monitor and evaluate own performance	behave ethically	resolve conflict in a constructive and negotiated manner
focus on knowing how	carefully plan time and energy	manage power and authority
learn from mistakes	effectively manage resources
solve problems in a business context	be flexible when dealing with change
see, identify and assess opportunities

	Attribute	Example demonstrated
1
2
3
4
5

13. Assess your overall personal contribution so far to the overall performance of your YES Company and grade yourself on the continuum below. Justify what you have given yourself this grade.

No contribution

Outstanding contribution

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Justification:

(Make sure you update the checklist when this is completed)

	Achieved
Student Review Statement Teacher Completion checklist	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Section A: Identify personal role in implementing the vision and mission.
Section B: Demonstrate and analyse effectiveness of personal Contribution.
Section C: Describe action points to be completed
Section D: Evaluate relationship with others in the enterprise
Section E: Reflect on development of enterprising attributes

STUDENTS REVIEW STATEMENT TWO

Due August

Section A to Section E – all sections must be completed

Students may use additional pages or line if required

Section A: Your Role – Personal tasks

1. Take two of the tasks (one for the directorship role and one for the other task) you identified in Question 10 of the last review.

Explain in depth how successful you were in relation to these two actions, both from a time perspective and from a completion perspective.

Task	Explanation

1. Identify at least two further challenges you faced in carrying out your role since the last review and describe how these challenges arose.

Challenge	How the challenge arose

3. If you had the opportunity again, what would you do differently?
Justify your answer.
