

FAQ National Excellence Awards

When are the Annual Reviews required?

The Annual Review can be submitted any time between 1 June and 9am, Friday 28 September 2018.

Who marks the Annual Reviews?

Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand mark the annual reviews. There is one marker for a region for consistency – or where it is a large region, two markers who then moderate their results. The annual review and marks are returned to the school after the national awards.

What if the Annual Reviews get to Young Enterprise after the due date?

Because of the timeframe for marking we cannot accept late reviews.

How are the National Excellence Awards decided?

All National Excellence Awards are selected by the sponsor.

How do companies apply for a specific award or awards?

When submitting your Annual Review online you indicate all the Awards your company wishes to be considered for.

When will the National Excellence Award winners be announced?

At the Regional Finals. Companies receiving an Award will be announced but the specific Award received will only be announced at the national awards dinner.

How will students and teachers find out about the national competition and National Excellence Awards arrangements?

All National Excellence Award winners and Regional Champions will be sent information about the competition and awards arrangements in Wellington. These letters will be posted and emailed to your teacher the day after your Regional Finals.

How are travel arrangements made for any of the regional or excellence awards teams?

The YES teacher is sent an amount of money to support the travel costs for 2 representative directors and the YES teacher to travel to the awards. Accommodation for the night of the awards and national awards dinner tickets are provided for two directors and the YES teacher courtesy of Young Enterprise.
