

Climb the Money Tree

Young Enterprise has created a series of board games to help students become more financially capable. Climb The Money Tree is a Snakes and Ladders-style game that teaches students about earning, saving, spending and sharing money. Students advance through 3 levels of play.

Student learning

Through Climb the Money Tree, students will:

- Learn of different ways to earn, save, spend and share money
- Learn how to record and track their savings

Curriculum links

Personal Financial Management is a fundamental part of a young person's education. Climb The Money Tree is designed to support the development of all 5 key competencies. The game also has strong links to the Social Sciences, English and Mathematics and Statistics learning areas.
