

Concentration

Young Enterprise has created a series of board games that help students to become more financially capable. Concentration is our version of the popular card game, Memory. Students pair financial terms with their matching images. They can play beginner, advanced and Brainburner levels of the game.

Student learning

Through Concentration, students will become familiar with financial terms such as spending, saving, price and budget.

Curriculum links

Personal Financial Management is a fundamental part of a young person's education. Concentration is designed to support the development of all 5 key competencies. The game also has strong links to the Social Sciences and Mathematics and Statistics learning areas.
