

Decisions

Young Enterprise has created a series of board games which help students become more financially capable. Decisions teaches students to balance saving and volunteer work. The board includes a range of paid and volunteer jobs and students aim to save $50 and complete 6 hours of volunteering.

Student learning

Through Decisions, students will:

- Learn how to keep and update a personal cash book
- Understand the importance of volunteering.

Curriculum links

Personal Financial Management is a fundamental part of a young person's education. Decisions is designed to support the five key competencies. The game also has strong links to the Social Sciences and Mathematics and Statistics learning areas.
